THAT Council Commends Council bus driver Anthony Hassett, Community Facilities Services Officer - Community Bus, for his service to Council and wish him all the best on his retirement.

Background

Anthony Hassett has been the Community Bus driver for Leichhardt/Inner West Council for the past five years.

Anthony came onboard when the new community bus service was established in 2015. Since then, he has become a much-loved travelling companion for many older residents, who use this vital community service, as well as a source of support for many residents.

Over the years, he has been a welcome sight as he made his way around his route each day, building deep relationships with many older residents and the community in general.

Anthony was always there with a kind word or smile and has provided valuable support by directing residents to Council services as needed.

Before starting work at Council, he was the Customer Service Platform Manager for Countrylink.

His family owns and runs the iconic Carlisle Castle Hotel in Newtown and is a die-hard Newtown Jet supporter.

While we wish Anthony all the best on his retirement, he will be missed dearly by his Council colleagues and the whole community.

Thank you, Anthony, for all your hard work and dedication to Inner West residents.
